

I feel that Indiana's telephone privacy law has helped to a great extent. I would not care to see the law deluted. If anything it needs to be expanded to cover all unsolicited commercial and charitable callers and especially calls that cannot be identified by a caller ID system (unavailable & private).